

Insecticide Information

You are advised that the product used in your premises is approved for use in commercial or domestic premises under the Control of Pesticides Regulations 1986.

Your co-operation is requested in taking the following precautions to further minimise the risks to all occupants:

- ☉ Rooms sprayed with an insecticide can only be re-occupied by children or animals once the treated surfaces are dry.
- ☉ Contact the Pest Control Officer for advice or assistance.
- ☉ In case of any human accidental contact, seek medical advice taking this form with you.
- ☉ In the case of accidental poisoning of animals, consult a veterinary surgeon taking this form with you.

The product listed below has been used on your premises by our Pest Management Technician.

Insecticides Used/.....

All pesticides are poisonous; keep children & animals away from them.

HAZARDS AND EFFECTS:

DO NOT BREATH DUST OR SWALLOW

Inhalation & Swallowing	May cause dizziness, headache, excessive sweating, abnormal pains, tearfulness, slow heartbeat, muscular twitching, convulsions.
Skin Contact	Can be absorbed through the skin x
Eye Contact	May cause constriction of the pupils, leading to temporary impaired vision
FIRST AID
Inhalation	Remove to fresh air, support if necessary, seek medical advice.
Swallowing	Wash mouth with water. Keep patient at rest, induce vomiting ONLY if patient is FULLY CONSCIOUS. Seek medical advice.
Skin	Remove contaminated clothing and wash affected area with soap and water.
Eyes	Rinse immediately with water for at least 15 minutes and obtain medical advice
NOTE TO PHYSICIAN
Contains anticholinesterase carbamates. Recommended antidote is atropine sulphate 2mg adult dose, preferably by injection, repeated as necessary until patient is fully atropinised. Do not use pralidoxime. All cases should be treated as an emergency. Respiratory failures the usual cause of death. If respiratory depression occurs, ventilation must be maintained.

FOR FURTHER ADVICE CONTACT:

Elite Pest Management Ltd
Mercury House, Willoughton Drive, Foxby Lane, Gainsborough, Lincs. DN21 1DY

Tel: 01427 613923

Providing a quality service to all industries